

WHAT WE DO

The Cyber Security Training Centre of Excellence is a leading organizational unit in the Ministry of National Defense, shaping the directions of development and vocational training system in the area of cybersecurity, cryptology and information technologies.

The Cyber Security Training Centre of Excellence, increasing the qualifications of soldiers and employees develops the competences of the Polish Armed Forces in the field of activities in cyberspace and also acts as a unit that consolidates the expert potential and supports the Ministry of National Defense in developing national and international cyber training cooperation.

The primary CST COE duties areas: